E is for Earnings

Focus on earning and sales. Where is your first sale coming from? Where is your next sale coming from?

L is for Learning

Set time aside each day to learn something new to keep growing and staying ahead of the competition.

R is for Relaxation

Take time out for yourself to renew, refresh and relax. You will achieve more in less time by doing this.

A is for Attention

What are you paying attention to? Don't get distracted from your desired outcome. Also - you won't make any money unless you get attention in the market.

T is for Targets

Set targets for retirement, 20 years, 20 years, 5 years, 1 year, this month, this week. Make them specific measurable and monitor your progress.

O is for Outlook

Maintain a positive and determined outlook in all you do. Confidence is key. Look to previous successes to build your confidence and strong outlook.

R is for Repetition

What you do every day defines your income
